ABOUT KARIN

When Dr. Karin Pirc began her career in Ayurvedic medicine, the word Ayurveda was not well known in Germany. She was an energetic innovator when she opened Germany's first Ayurveda health centre in Schledehausen in 1985. In 1993, together with Lothar Pirc, she opened the Maharishi Ayurveda Health Centre in Bad Ems.

Advanced training with well-known Ayurveda experts such as Vaidya Dr. J. R. Raju, Dr. Balaraj Maharishi, Dr. Triguna, Dr. Divedi, Asthavaidyan Mooss in India made her one of the leading German specialists in Ayurvedic pulse diagnosis and Panchakarma.

Karin has treated over 30,000 patients with Ayurveda only and she trained hundreds of doctors in the eighties and nineties.

She is also a teacher of Transcendental Meditation, inspired by her master Maharishi Mahesh Yogi.
